

ORIGINAL RESEARCH JUDGING CRITERIA FOR POSTER AND ORAL PRESENTATIONS

POSTER JUDGING CRITERIA – ORIGINAL RESEARCH

FORMAT AND CONTENT

- Background includes a hypothesis that is clearly stated.
- Methods are reproducible.
- Data analysis and results are appropriate and clear.
- Conclusions match the results.
- Acknowledgments are included:
 - Study sponsors and grants.
 - IRB statement.

RELEVANCE

- Relevance for the osteopathic family physician.
- Clinical relevance.

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

- Presenter is knowledgeable about the topic.
- Presenter is knowledgeable about the research.
- Presenter is able to answer questions.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- The use of any additional materials or equipment during the oral presentation required advanced approval.